"puts a smile on the face"
- James Halliday

Gold, International Riesling Challenge 2017

St Hallett Eden Valley Riesling is on a roll. James Halliday, in awarding it a massive 96/100 points, said it "puts a smile on the face as its purity and freshness come through without the least hesitation". It also enjoyed great success at the International Riesling Challenge 2017 and Royal Queensland Wine Show 2017 where it was awarded gold medals. An absolute steal at such a low price.

2018 Penfolds Luxury and Icon release at Quay restaurant

Yes folks, Kemenys most prestigious and popular event is on again.

Penfolds new releases will again be unveiled at Sydney's most exclusive restaurant Quay. Penfolds top reds and wines will all be on display including the new vintage release of Penfolds Reserve Bin A Chardonnay, 389 Cabernet Shiraz, 407 Cabernet Sauvignon, St Henri Shiraz and, of course, the king of Australian wines, Penfolds Grange Hermitage.

To guide you through these iconic wines, we will have the man who is rumoured to know more about Penfolds than any living individual - the witty and urbane George Samios. All of these Penfolds wines will be expertly matched with Quay head chef Peter Gilmore's fabulous creations.

This event is always one of the most eagerly anticipated wine events on the calendar and, as anyone who has attended this event over the years will tell you, apart from superb wine and food, it's a lot of fun. This year the event will be held on Level 1 of Quay restaurant. We are also offering the option of attending either the lunch or an evening function on the same day (sorry you can't possibly do both).

When: Tuesday 30th October 2018

Time: 12 noon for lunch or 6.30pm for dinner

Where: Quay restaurant
Overseas Passenger Terminal
5 Hickson Road, The Rocks

Cost: $389 per person

THE TIME FOR PATIENCE IS OVER

Established in 1893, Leasingham has been an integral part of the Clare Valley for over 100 years. Today, Leasingham select only their most outstanding wines for release under the premium Classic Clare label. Consistent show success rewards the depth and integrity of these distinctly regional wines. This superb 6-year-old riesling has brilliant, fresh primary fruit flavours and only now hinting at the toasty cellar-aged characters which will come with extended bottle age.

THE TIME FOR PATIENCE IS OVER

Leasingham Classic Clare Riesling 2012

Region: Clare Valley
Rating: 98/100 👍👍

A special cellar release wine. Luminous green-gold, the bouquet and palate an exercise in harmony. Meyer lemon and lime flavours lead the journey, hints of lightly browned toast in the background. The acidity is essential, but it is likewise simply part of the team. Alcohol: 12.5%. Closure: screwcap. Date tasted: Sep 2017. Drink by: 2027. Price: $53. Rating: 98/100.

PERTH ROYAL WINE SHOW 2017

Sydney Royal Wine Show 2018

TROPHY WINNERS

The prestigious Sydney Royal Wine Show, now in its 192nd year, saw a record number of 2332 Australian wines judged in 66 categories.

This is arguably the most influential Australian wine show, with the highly anticipated results having a massive impact across the wine industry and the wine-loving public.

Here is a selection of the trophy-winners, the best of the best, showcasing the diversity of Australian wine by featuring superb wines from five different varieties, and made in both cool-climate and warm regions.

Special congratulations to Bleasdale for its Generations Shiraz 2015 being selected as the international judge's best wine.

BEST ROSÉ,
SYDNEY ROYAL WINE SHOW

Longview Nebbiolo Rosato 2018

Region: Adelaide Hills
Rating: 96/100 🏆🏆

Longview is responsible for some of the Adelaide Hills' earliest plantings of nebbiolo and this has picked up the trophy for 'Best Rosé' at the Sydney Royal Wine Show 2018, emulating the success of its 2017 vintage. This is no ordinary, mainstream Rosé, it's pale and very dry with delicate summer berry flavours and plenty of mineral texture and packing nebbiolo's typical tannic grip. Its delicious savoury edginess is so different to most Rosés and makes it so food friendly, with anything from antipasto to classic Italian veal dishes.

BEST PINOT GRIS/GRIGIO,
SYDNEY ROYAL WINE SHOW

Bird In Hand Pinot Gris 2018

Region: Adelaide Hills
Rating: 95/100 🏆🏆

This cracking pinot gris from the Adelaide Hills has won the trophy for 'Best Pinot Gris/Grigio' at the Sydney Royal Wine Show 2018, doubling up on its earlier trophy win in the same category at the Royal Queensland Wine Show 2018. The fruit is sourced from vineyards in Lenswood and Lobethal, with some of the juice wild fermented in French oak. Crisp and energetic aromas with creamy flavours of spiced pear, green apple and lemon. It's charged with fresh acidity and chalky minerality. A very classy 'gris' wine to match with chicken or pork dishes.

Region: Yarra Valley
Rating: 97/100 🏆🏆🏆

Wild yeast open-fermented with 20% whole bunches, matured for 7 months in French oak (10% new), gravity bottled. Very good colour; the intensity of the aromas and flavours unfolding with the first sip stop you in your tracks. The whole bunch component is evident, but not dominant, simply one of many factors in shaping the flavour and texture of this lovely wine. Alcohol: 13.5%. Tasted: Feb 2018. Drink By: 2037. Rating: 96/100 🏆🏆

Grenache is at last breaking through as a major varietal on the back of captivating expressions such as this from McLaren Vale. Winner of the trophy in the 'Best Other Varietal' category at the Sydney Royal Wine Show 2018, this beautiful Grenache nails the brief. Lovely fragrant red fruits and florals with sweet baking spice and leafy notes. Flavours are deep, supple and pure, with plums, blueberries and mulberries with delicious tang. It's fresh and lithe with grippy tannins and enormous length. No wonder so many people are finally falling in love with grenache.

THE VALUE IS Stunning

Kemenys is constantly sourcing the best wines and using our purchasing power to ensure the best prices. The wines on these pages clearly show that great drinking is possible without big prices.

From the coastal Mount Benson region about 300km east of Adelaide. Mount Benson flies under the radar most of the time but fresh, intensely varietal wines like this that drag into the spotlight. Smells great, tastes great and the price is the deal clincher.

Deriving its name from the picturesque Mount Chalambar near Great Western in central Victoria, Seppelt Chalambar Shiraz has an excellent pedigree. Seems to be showing a stronger Heathcote influence with this release, or perhaps it's the warmer vintage expressing itself. In any case it's quite an open and accessible wine, spicy and sweet-fruited, although there is a gamey, savoury element. Finished with a smooth veneer of oak, it's a well rounded package and continues to deliver genuine value for money. Alcohol: 14.5%. Closure: screwcap. Date tasted: Feb 2018. Drink by: 2028. Named in memory and as a tribute to the families who lived at 'Chain of Ponds' hamlet from 1840 to 1970 where all that remains is a cemetery. A superb cool-climate syrah showing the concentrated plum and blackberry fruits and tightly constructed spicy and savoury framework. Stunning value.

"X-FACTOR" SHIRAZ

Region: Adelaide Hills
Rating: 95/100 🍷

From a single vineyard in Kuitipo, 8 days on skins in open and Potter fermenters, matured in French and American oak for 15 months. Bright hue; an elegant, medium-bodied syrah, its X-factor coming from its east-facing slope that maximises the morning sun and minimises the afternoon sun. Its got a spice and cracked pepper garnish for the red and black fruits, the tannins fine but persistent. A total contrast to its Acquaintance sibling. Alcohol: 14.5%. Closure: screwcap. Australia's most famous marsanne, first planted by Tahbilk in 1860. Fresh and zesty when it's young, marsanne can develop in the bottle for decades, and like Hunter semillon, it can develop gorgeous honey, toast and marmalade. Highly underrated and brilliant value.

Made by the Tate family, one of the Margaret River's pioneers, it has collected three trophies. Margaret River sauvignon is far more restrained than most Marlborough expressions, having gentler acidity and emphasis on citrus and tropical flavours rather than obvious grassy notes.

We've been vindicated many times over, with our prediction that Yealands would become one of New Zealand's most influential wineries. This wine won two major trophies, including 'Champion Sauvignon Blanc' at the Marlborough Wine Show (where all the star wines are presented).

Pinot Grigio containing King Valley fruit always produces the goods. The quality of this cool-climate element along with the Tahbilk winemaking expertise has given us a light, bright and spicy white which will be just the shot for Springtime dining. The low price belies the high quality.

From the pioneers of cool-climate winemaking, this pinot gris is gaining a reputation as one of Australia's finest. The extended ripening period of the Eden Valley leads to trademark, concentrated lemon-pear flavours and laser-like acidity and texture from cool, long ripening. A great food wine, particularly with white meat dishes.

Seppelt Jaluka is easily the best-value Chardonnay we've seen. The cool Henty fruit provides very concentrated citrus and stone fruit flavours with superb natural acidity. It also contains parcels of fruit from Seppelt's prized Drumborg Vineyard. A steal at this price.

JAMES HALLIDAY'S 2019 BEST OF VARIETALS - WHITE

After months of tasting 9,289 wines James Halliday and his tasting team have miraculously narrowed down his 'Best Varietals'. It's a daunting task across scores of varietals and a great number of outstanding wines, the majority of which didn't even make the cut.

There are names that you'll recognise which keep popping up each year, an indication of the consistent excellence of some wineries.

Special congratulations to Dukes Magpie Hill Riesling 2017 on being named 'Wine of the Year' and earning a mammoth score of 99/100 points. As the production of this wine is miniscule, the 2017 were sold out some time ago. We are, however, extremely fortunate to be able to offer you the equally impressive 2018 vintage. Again, this is only available in tiny quantities, so please don't hesitate in securing yours.

ONLY A TINY QUANTITY LEFT!!

Dukes Vineyard Magpie Hill Riesling 2018

Region: Porongurup
Rating: 98/100 🍷🍷

This astounding riesling is a more-than-worthy successor to the 2017 Halliday 99 pointer. It resonates with concentration, and is a pristine expression of a regional style which is, arguably, Australia's finest riesling. It has everything you would want from a great Porongurup riesling - tightly wound with lemon, green apple, fresh acidity and cool mineral texture. A very exciting wine of structure, texture and great refinement, with the promise of a very long life in the cellar. A must-have.

The highly expressive bouquet has layers far more often found in red than white wines, and the palate is little short of electrifying, instantly reaching every corner of the mouth. JAMES HALLIDAY'S 2019 BEST OF VARIETALS - RED

Like the best whites, tasting thousands of red submissions resulted in many usual suspects, such as Cullen, Seppelt receiving much-deserved 99/100 points for their unique masterpieces. It also unearthed wineries doing great things while flying under the radar, such as McLaren Vale's Rouleur and Adelaide Hills' Chain of Ponds.

It was also encouraging to see Silkman's 'forgotten blend' of shiraz and pinot noir back in the spotlight, this combination of grapes having all but disappeared after Maurice O'Shea's legendary Hunter classics. We're bound to see much more from this blend in the future.

Here are some of Halliday's best from this year's list.

Silkman was, so far as I know, the first to explore this blend since the death of Maurice O'Shea. It raises a question with no real answer - why did it take so long to gain currency afresh? "BLOODY GORGEOUS", JAMES HALLIDAY

Yangarra Estate Shiraz 2016

Region: McLaren Vale
Rating: 97/100 🍷🍷

50% whole berries, 50% destemmed, wild yeast open-fermented, matured for 10 months in used French oak. Just another $30 McLaren Vale shiraz? Absolutely not. This is profoundly exciting, another masterpiece from Peter Fraser, Wine Companion Winemaker of the Year '16. It's not often I'm tempted to sneakily swallow half a mouthful of a wine, it's almost as if an unseen force refuses to let me actually drink a little. The wine is spicy, textured, with a rainbow of dark fruit flavours - bloody gorgeous. Alcohol: 14.5%. Tasted: Mar 2018. Drink By: 2036. Price: $30. Rating: 97/100.

"EXCEPTIONAL POWER AND COMPLEXITY", JAMES HALLIDAY

Rouleur Shiraz 2017

Region: McLaren Vale
Rating: 97/100 🍷🍷

From two vineyards at Blewitt Springs, open-fermented with varying percentages of whole bunches, 11 months in French puncheons (15% new). Exceptional power and complexity, yet retains nigh on perfect balance and structure. The combination of Blewitt Springs and '17 provides shiraz that will be remembered with awe for years to come. Super-fragrant spices and flowers leap from the glass, the glazed shiraz rounded and succulent yet not cloying. Alcohol: 14%. Closure: screwcap. Date tasted: March 2018. Drink to: 2040. Price: $32. "A VERY SPECIAL WINE" JAMES HALLIDAY

Chain of Ponds the Cachet Cabernet Blends 2013

Region: Adelaide Hills
Rating: 98/100 🍷🍷

Deep, healthy colour, still with crimson on the rim. The particularly complex vinification was conceived and implemented without a hitch. 47% cabernet sauvignon, 43% shiraz and 10% merlot from three different vineyards with different canopy management and site aspects, different soils, the varieties handled separately and fermented with different procedures. Oak choice and use varied significantly, the sumptuous, black-fruited blend finalised after 20+ months maturation in barrel, then matured for a further 30 months in bottle prior to release. A very special wine. Alcohol: 14.5%. Closure: cork. Date tasted: Feb 2018. Drink: to 2033. Price: $100. Rating: 98/100.

Cullen Vanya 2015

Region: Margaret River
Rating: 99/100 🍷🍷

Two-thirds whole berries/one-third crushed into 300l terracotta amphorae for wild fermentation, 10 weeks on skins before pressed to French oak (66% new) for 5 months. Stripping away all the obvious questions re price - and yes, it is cheap compared to Grange and Hill of Grace - this is a truly beautiful and graceful cabernet. Its purity of varietal fruit expression, its perfect fruit/oak/tannin balance and its length are exceptional, and amply justify Vanya Cullen's belief the wine will age well for at least 50 years. James Halliday's 'Best Value' Winery

PROVENANCE

PROVENANCE CHIEF WINEMAKER
SAM VOGEL AND SCOTT IRELAND

It's been an eventful and rewarding wine journey for Scott Ireland. While toiling tirelessly doing vintage in the Barossa and relentlessly operating a mobile bottling plant through the 1980s, Scott worked closely with many small wineries, learning, first hand, the intricate demands of wine production, and witnessing the constant ups and the downs of winery ownership.

Armed with all this crucial knowledge, he was well prepared, when in 2004 he took ownership of the Geelong-based contract winemaker, Provenance. With access to outstanding vineyards in Geelong, Ballarat, Henty and Macedon, Scott, now ably supported by partner, Jen Lilburn, along with long-time winemaker and co-owner, Sam Vogel, produce some of the region's finest wines in their 150-tonne winery situated by the Barwon River. The adjoining cellar-door facility is recognised as one of Australia's best.

The sheer quality of the Provenance wines combined with their extremely reasonable pricing has resulted in James Halliday naming Provenance as 'Best Value Winery' in his Australian Wine Companion 2019.

Provenance Golden Plains Pinot Noir 2016

Region: Geelong
Rating: 95/100

76% Geelong, 22% Ballarat, 2% Macedon, hand-picked, open-fermented with 30% whole bunches, matured for 10 months in French oak (25% new). A beautifully balanced pinot, which shows the influence of the relatively small Ballarat component. There is a tantalising brushstroke of smoky spice before the complex array of red and black cherries form the base of the fruit flavour, oak and tannins spot on. Alcohol: 13.2%. Closure: screwcap. TRUE TO FORM

Provenance Golden Plains Pinot Noir 2017

Region: Geelong
Rating: 96/100

We are loving the wines from the 2017 Victorian vintage and this pinot noir certainly continues the excellence of previous vintages. 2017 was a cooler vintage reflected in its lifted red fruit aroma and flavours and silky texture. Its Geelong vineyard base lends generous weight and the ultra-cool regions of Ballarat and Henty bring the perfume. Fragrant with red and dark berry aromas, toasted spices and savoury, earthy characters. A rich, but elegant pinot displaying ripe cherry, plum and forest floor characters with fresh acidity and fine, chewy tannins. A wine of poise and great length. Really good value for a quality Victorian pinot.

"GROSSLY UNDERPRICED", JAMES HALLIDAY

Provenance Geelong Shiraz 2016

Region: Geelong
Rating: 96/100

From the Spence Vineyard at Bannockburn, open-fermented with 25% whole bunches, 28 days on skins, 73% matured in old French puncheons, 2% in concrete eggs for 14 months. Australian shiraz has 100 faces reflecting vine age, clone, vine site, climate and soil, canopy management, organic/biodynamic of traditionally grown, the list goes on. This vividly and deeply coloured wine is very cool grown, but its flavour overflows the fermenter, the barrel, the glass and the mouth. The predominantly black fruits are so juicy they flow past or through the tannins and oak, and is grossly underpriced. Alcohol: 13.5%. Closure: screwcap. Date tasted: Mar 2018. Drink to: 2041. Provenance Golden Plains Chardonnay 2017

Region: Geelong
Rating: 96/100

We'll go out on a limb here and declare this as the best Golden Plains Chardonnay to date. The 2017 vintage conditions were ideal and the usual judicious blend of Geelong, Henty and Ballarat fruit has resulted in a sensuous bouquet of stone fruit, citrus, florals nuts and nutty barrel aromas. The smoothly intense flavour profile boasts waves of white peach and tangy grapefruit with grilled nuts and brisk natural acidity pulling it all into line. There is cool, river-stone mineral texture and a fresh, very long finish. Gorgeous.

"This hits like a thunderstorm" says James Halliday. It is deeper and darker than you would expect from an Adelaide hills shiraz. Whilst complex, it retains the elegance of top Adelaide Hills shiraz that sells for twice the price. This winery's fortunes grew exponentially from 2012, when the winemaker from none other than Shaw + Smith joined (so he knows all about making exceptional cool climate shiraz). Their shiraz has since won numerous accolades including the title of "Best Australian Red Wine" at the 2014 International Wine Challenge. James Halliday has, very recently, rated this shiraz a hefty 96 points and it is a serious bargain at its already modest cellar door price of $26 a bottle. We are very fortunate to have secured a small quantity for Kemenys customers at an unheard of price...only $13.95 a bottle.

Rating: 94/100 🍷👍

When we were offered this well-known Mornington Peninsula Chardonnay for inclusion as a Secret Label, we jumped at the opportunity. Made by one of the regions foremost, award-winning producers, this wine is a reflection of modern Chardonnay with minimal oak flavours and improved acid structure. It exudes citrus and stone fruit aromas with a slight hint of spicy French oak that was integrated during fermentation. James Halliday was very taken by the wine, saying that the "persistent and long palate delivers a wine that can be enjoyed now but that will only get better of the next 2-3 years." A premium Mornington chardonnay selling at cellar door for $28, this is unbelievable value for only $13.95.

CLARE VALLEY

Situated in the northern section of the Mt Lofty Ranges, South Australia's Clare Valley was settled in the late 1830s, the first vineyards planted 1840s. The climate features cool winters and warm to hot summers, but cooling afternoon breezes play a major role in slowing down the ripening process, leading to concentrated flavours and the all-important natural acidity.

Best known for its world-class rieslings, the region also produces many other varietals, including cabernet sauvignon and shiraz.

With wildly variable micro-climates and soil types, the same variety can produce similarly varied results in the winery. The sandy loam and terra rossa over limestone soils, which account for the major area of the valley create the signature regional lemon and lime characters, whilst the broken slate, free draining soils of the prized Polish Hill River sub-region add an extra element of steely acidity and stony minerality.

YARRA VALLEY

With a wine-producing history dating back over 170 years, Victoria's cool-climate Yarra Valley is recognised as the 'birthplace' of Victoria's wine industry. Wine production ceased completely in 1921 with the trend to fortifieds diminishing demand for quality table wines.

Thankfully replanting commenced in the 1960s and since then, the full potential of the region has been revealed, with talented winemakers taking full advantage of the ideal terroir and the benefits of cool-climate grapes.

2017 was a very good vintage in the Yarra Valley, with perfect ripening conditions. The fruit was consistently excellent throughout the valley, which has resulted in some spectacular releases.

WHITE BLENDS

Australia has a love of single varietal wines, but there have been successes to be had with blends. In the early days they were often labelled 'classic white' or 'white burgundy', and could be the product of up to four or five varieties. Then there was the 70s trend for traminer-riesling. Most of these wines were inexpensive, with the majority being relatively frivolous. The blend of semillon with chardonnay was a more serious blend in those formative days, generally providing a more complex, dry, food-friendly option.

More recently, blends have been taken far more seriously, the most popular being the signature Western Australian blend of semillon and sauvignon blanc, mostly unoaked. In recent years, some winemakers have taken this blend to another level, giving the wines period of lees contact and barrel fermentation which can transform them into complex, textural masterpieces.

AS GOOD AS IT GETS

Cullen Vineyard Sauvignon Blanc Semillon 2015

Region: Margaret River Rating: 96/100 🍷🍷

A 74/26% blend fermented and matured in new French oak for 5 months. The complex bouquet brings toasty oak, cut grass and hints of stone fruit (also lurking in the Mangan SBS) into play, the palate pulling out all the stops with its mix of tropical fruits and citrusy acidity. Alcohol: 13%. Date tasted: Feb 2017. Drink by: 2025. Price: $35. Rating: 96/100.

Since its inception in 1986 Howard Park has built a reputation as one of West Australia's greatest family owned wineries. Howard Park produces exceptional wines from both the Margaret River and Great Southern regions. The Burch family, the custodians of Howard Park, are also a member of the elite 'Australia's First Families of Wine'.

The wines have never been better since chief winemaker Janice McDonald joined Howard Park in 2011. Janice has just been named as a Finalist for Gourmet Traveller Wine's 'Winemaker of the Year' (for a second time).

Kemenys is honoured to have formed a collaboration with Howard Park on the 1960 range. 1960 was the year that Kemenys began and the range aims to produce the best wines under $20 in collaboration with Australia's leading wineries. In recognition of their 30th anniversary Howard Park released both a 1960 30th Anniversary Release Riesling and Cabernet Sauvignon. You will be hard pressed to find a better Riesling or Cabernet Sauvignon for less than a lobster.

"THE VALUE DEFIES BELIEF", KIM BREBACH

Devils Ridge Block 5 Great Southern Riesling 2016

Region: Great Southern Rating: 94/100 🍷🍷

Made by Howard Park, a winery that produces a lot of great Rieslings. Just to recap: our parameters for choosing the wine of the week are simple: we pick the wine with the highest quality / price ratio. This $10 wine is up there with Aussie Rieslings closer to $20. It shows the depth of quality material produced in the Great Southern region of Western Australia. My only quibble is that I would've picked it as South Australian in a blind tasting, because of the flowery aroma, the ripe limes, the crisp backbone and fine acid on the finish. I'm tossing up between 93 and 94 points. The value defies belief.

HUNTER VALLEY Semillon

Legendary wine reviewer, Jancis Robinson, once said Hunter Valley semillon is "one of the unsung heroes of white wine production."

Semillon, an underrated variety in most of the world's wine regions (particularly for dry wines), is the grape behind the Hunter Valley's magnificent signature whites. A uniquely Australian wine, it stands tall amongst the great cellaring wine styles of the world.

The classic Hunter semillons are typically picked early, fermented dry and bottled without any oak treatment. An up-side of this process is that the alcohol is relatively low, and good levels of natural acidity are retained in the finished wines. When young, the wines are deliciously fresh, light and crisp, with lemon, lime and sometimes subtle tropical fruit and fresh herb flavours.

It's with cellaring, for up to three decades that the magic transformation unfolds as the wine softens, and the classic, complex honeyed toast aromas and flavours kick in. It's a joy to behold.

It so happens that the most current release Hunter semillons are from the excellent 2017 vintage and while they currently offer delicious, crisp drinking, the best examples promise great things many years into the future.

SIBLING OF JAMES HALLIDAY'S SEMILLON OF THE YEAR

Silkman Estate Semillon 2017

Region: Hunter Valley Rating: 95/100 🍷🍷

2017 was a standout, for Hunter Valley whites in particular. For this semillon, Silkman source the grapes from selected blocks of clay-loam soils which provide classic structure, but, as for the young wine, also results in a more generous, approachable style. A modern semillon with the traditional ability to blossom gracefully for up to a decade.

The classic Hunter Valley white variety crafted by Tyrrell's (the producer of the Hunter's best semillon) from the exceptionally good 2017 vintage. Whether you like your whites young or with some bottle age, semillon caters beautifully to both styles. Lean and racy lemon and green apple flavours when young transform into complex honey and toast with some cellar time. Brokenwood ILR Semillon 2011

When I first tasted this wine in Oct '15 I made this note: Has the green tinge to its colour that always excites me. It has a lovely combination of lemongrass freshness with perfect first stage development of sweet fruit and incipient honey (which will take years to fully evolve). In the meantime, citrus rules the roost, allied with mouthwatering acidity. Now 15 months down the track, the honey is a little more obvious, but the all-important acidity remains the spine of the wine, and always will. Alcohol: 11%. Closure: screwcap. Drink by: 2031. 2014 HUNTER VALLEY Reds

Perfect growing conditions for the Hunter Valley's 2014 vintage has led many to declare it in their top 3, (if not the top) Hunter vintages of all time. Hunter Valley Wine Show chairman of judges Jim Chatto (McWilliams chief winemaker): "1937, 1954, 1965, 2014. If you're lucky, you get one, maybe two of these vintages in your career." Tyrrell's boss Bruce Tyrrell chimed in with a typically confident and probably very accurate assessment of the 2014s - "My father, Murray, was famous for regularly declaring a 'vintage of the century'. Well, this is possibly the best of both this and last century."

See for yourself what a great vintage it was in 2014. Here are some excellent examples to choose from.

VAT 9'S BABY BROTHER

Tyrrell's Hunter Valley Shiraz 2014

Region: Hunter Valley Rating: 93/100 🍷

Bruce Tyrrell was excited by the 2014 vintage declaring it "the vintage of the century". It was no surprise that the Tyrrells Hunter Shiraz 2014 sold out in a flash (even the Tyrrells Vat 9 shiraz 2014 sold out in days on the back of this most heralded vintage). Kemenys has been cellaring this vintage for a few years as we felt it needed time before it was right in the zone (Tyrrells actually released the 2014 vintage after the 2015 for the same reason). The aromas are fresh and floral, loaded with cherry-berry fruit and a hint of cracked pepper. It is a medium bodied wine that is supple, with a peppery, silky finish. A lot of wine for the money.

Rosé is great drinking at any time, but our warmer months always make it absolutely essential to have a few bottles at the ready in the fridge. Over the last decade, the number of Rosés on the market has risen dramatically because demand has skyrocketed. Apart from the fact that rosé is very fashionable wine, our Australian climate and lifestyle make it a great option. With traditional French and other European rosés continuing to impress, Australian winemakers are responding with an ever-increasing array of high-quality alternatives.

Rosé can be made in a range of styles, light or medium weight, sweet or dry, and from any number of grape varieties, but the dry, pale salmon-pink expressions are, by far, the most popular. Versatility is the key with Rosé, matching virtually any cuisine, as well as making a very refreshing aperitif.

CLASSIC Australian Reds

"What is a classic Australian red?", you might ask yourself. Well, up until a few decades ago, no one would argue if you said big Barossa, Coonawarra, Langhorne Creek and more recently Margaret River. Since then, Australia's wine landscape has become more diverse and sophisticated, with new regions establishing themselves, specialising in a raft of new varieties which are challenging the old-school notions with their quality and consistency.

The usual suspects still prevail, with shiraz and cabernet leading the way but wines such as Yabby Lakes' perennial trophy-winning pinot noir are making an undeniable bid for inclusion as a classic Australian due to its almost iconic status and amazing consistency.

Try these classic Australian reds.

This is Australia's finest value sparkling Shiraz and it delights in this appraisal by giving us a desperately sexy and curvaceous body to grab hold of - packed with glistening plum, blackberry, mocha and exotic spice. There is also a faint kiss of sweetness on the finish which tantalises the palate pulling you in for another mouthful.

"AT ONCE FULL-BODIED AND ELEGANT",
JAMES HALLIDAY

John Duval Entity Shiraz 2016

Region: Barossa Valley Score: 97/100 🍷🍷

60% Barossa Valley, 40% Eden Valley grapes, open-fermented with submerged cap, matured for 15 months in new (33%) and used French hogsheads. Deeply coloured; this is at once full-bodied and elegant, not a common marriage with young red wines with decades in front of them. The flavours are all black: blackberry, blackcurrant, black cherry, earth and licorice. The old vines have also provided ripe tannins, the whole theme resonated with oak a la Grange. Alcohol: 14.5%. Closure: screwcap. Date tasted: Jan 2018. Drink by: 2056. Price: $50. Rating: 97/100.

Yabby Lake Single Vineyard Pinot Noir 2016

Region: Mornington Peninsula

Rating: 96/100 🍷🍷

95% MV6, 5% D4V2 clone, hand-picked, an average of 20% whole bunches (separate batches 0-30%), wild-fermented, 8-15 days on skins, matured for 11 months in French oak (20% new). Supple and smooth; red fruits in the ascendant on the expressive bouquet and palate. Gentle spices will grow over time, adding another dimension to an already compelling wine. Alcohol: 13.5%. ALL GUNS BLAZING

1960 Teusner Old Vine The Young Gun Shiraz 2015

Region: Barossa Valley Rating: 96/100 🍷🍷

In 2007, Kym Teusner won the Kemenys medal for Young Winemaker of the Year and has since emerged as the star of the new breed of Barossa winemakers. Teusner's love of old-vine grapes sourced from old-school Barossa growers has led to the evolution of his concentrated and powerful shiraz style - and this shiraz is no exception. Sourced from the surrounds of the original Teusner homestead in the Barossa Valley, it is generous and fleshy with restrained ripeness and deep, long flavours that will gain further complexity with cellaring for a decade or more. True & righteous pleasure. Only 700 dozen made.

Wine writer, Winsor Dobbin, connects the dots nicely: "take arguably Australia's best region for cabernet sauvignon, throw in one of the best winemakers in the west in {secret winemaker}, and add the mighty resources of the {secret winery} and you have one of the best sub $30 cabernets in the land". Winsor goes for gold and states that it's "a winner at $28 a bottle". Why can't we tell you the winery's name? Well this winery would never allow its brand to be discounted this heavily, but they've have had a little accident. 500 cases of their prized cabernet was bottled with a gold cap, rather than a black cap, specifically for a Chinese customer. The gold cap proved fortunate for us, as the export order fell through, so this is a one-off chance for us to offer this cabernet sauvignon at a very special price, exclusively to Kemenys customers.

Rob Gibson has proudly released his 2008 Bin 60 Barossa Valley Cabernet Shiraz; A special creation to celebrate Rob's 60th birthday and 50 years of wine industry knowledge and achievement. Barossa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon and Eden Valley Shiraz, an exceptional blend from a great vintage and two phenomenal vineyards. This limited production, super premium wine will age for many years and is truly Rob Gibson's personal pride and joy. Rob has always had a passion for Shiraz Cabernet from his 23 years at Penfolds in which he was involved in Penfolds Bin 389 blending.

Gibson Bin 60 Shiraz Cabernet 2008

Region Barossa Valley Rating: 96/100 🍷🍷

This is finally being released at 10 years old to celebrate Rob Gibson's 60th birthday, which was in 2011. (60% Barossa cabernet; 40% Eden Valley shiraz. 2000 numbered bottles priced at $300) The wine has matured gracefully, the flavour is tremendously complex and rich, and the style of the wine is quite reminiscent of Eden Valley, with a lot of raspberry, truffle and subtle herbal nuances. The texture is wonderfully soft and supple. Price $300. Rating: 95/100.

JAMES HALLIDAY

Gibson the Smithy Shiraz Cabernet 2016

Region: Barossa Valley Rating: 94/100 🍷🍷

52% shiraz, the remnant cabernet, this is quintessentially Australian and smeared with Barossan dirt. Profits go toward preserving the settler's cottage on the property, dating from the 1850's. Black plum and fruitcake spice aplenty, set with savour by anise, olive and some scrubby thyme and menthol. These work their way across the gently appointed pillars of oak, guiding the wine's facets rather than shellacking them. A generous, satisfying wine, of sincere value. Alcohol: 14.8%. Region: Hunter Valley
Rating: 93/100

Bright green-straw; 2 years down the track, taking the first tentative steps along the development path, but this should not suggest that you should wait for the wine - semillon does not seem to go into the dumb phase that most other varieties fall prey to when the first flush of youth has dissipated, and proper maturity is well around the corner. THE MOST EXCITING CHAMPAGNE LAUNCH THIS MILLENNIUM

Laurent-Perrier La Cuvée Champagne NV

Region: Champagne Rating: 94/100

After 15 years of experimentation, Laurent Perrier is replacing its non-vintage Champagne with Laurent Perrier La Cuvée Champagne NV. The scale of this undertaking by Laurent-Perrier is better understood by the fact its brut non-vintage is the fifth biggest selling champagne in the world. Launching a new champagne to replace the house style is an extremely rare event. The new La Cuvée spends an extra year ageing in the cellar, resulting in a more complex wine. No fewer than 100 different crus enter into the La Cuvée blend. Laurent-Perrier cellar master Michel Fauconnet says "La Cuvée allows us to turn up our style" which has always been chardonnay driven. La Cuvée has double the chardonnay content of the average champagne and it is noticeably fresher and purer, the higher chardonnay creating a nose with hints of fresh citrus. A new star has been born and we predict that La Cuvée will emerge as one of Australia's most popular champagnes.

ONE OF THE GREAT CHAMPAGNE BARGAIN-BUYS.

The high quality of AR Lenoble champagnes has impressed Kemenys from the first time they were tasted. We were absolutely floored when we discovered the price. AR Lenoble must go down as one of the great champagne bargain-buys.

We weren't alone in our praise. World-renowned wine critic Jancis Robinson was clearly excited by these wines, saying "AR Lenoble's reputation as a high-quality boutique producer is already established. Anyone with money can choose a prestige cuvée of champagne - a Dom Pérignon or a Cristal - but it takes a bit more knowledge, and confidence, to serve a better-value alternative such as a long-aged non-vintage champagne from... AR Lenoble." - Jancis Robinson

"A CUVEE OF INTEGRITY AND POISE", TYSON STELZER

AR Lenoble Brut Intense NV

Region: Champagne Rating: 94/100

An impeccably crafted wine from noble fruit sources, offering value for money. Crunchy apple and grapefruit define a well-focused fruit profile, backed by the biscuity complexity of bottle age and a touch of oak, culminating in a finish of well focused malic acid line and neatly integrated low dosage. A touch of phenolic texture does not interrupt its flow or mineral mouthfeel. A cuvee of integrity and poise. Rating: 93/100.

Region: Champagne Rating: 95/100

The tension and definition of the energetic 2008 vintage is endearing in the opulent village of Chouilly, and Malassagne has sensitively matched the elegance of the vintage with a subtle 10% oak vinification and a very light dosage. Youthful lemon, pear and apple fruit of impressive poise and proportion is propelled by a wonderful line of glistening 2008 acidity and frothing salt mineral texture, elongating a finish of magnificent line and persistence. Oak lends an appealing, almost invisible note of vanilla and almond. A masterful and age-worthy contrast between the rounded intensity of Chouilly and the vivacious drive of a terrific season. Rating: 95/100.

Hidden Label Hilltops Cabernet Sauvignon 2016 (KHL 2787)

Region Hilltops
Rating 95/100

This producer is acknowledged as the flagship Hilltops winery, and one of the rising stars of top-end Australian wine. Ranked among the most prolific award-winners on the major Australian and international wine-show circuits, this winery has won over 90 medals and trophies since 2009. A James Halliday 5-star rated winery, they have crafted this richly flavoured, classically structured cabernet sauvignon which drinks beautifully now and will develop well with five or six years in the cellar. A must with rich red meat dishes.

Hidden Label Langhorne Creek Cabernet Malbec 2014 (KHL 5459)

Region Langhorne Creek
Rating 96/100

61% cabernet sauvignon, 18% malbec, 9% merlot, 8% petit verdot, 4% cabernet franc, gold medal National Wine Show '15. Almost nonchalantly floods the mouth with blackcurrant and plum, the texture mesmeric, focusing on the fruit, yet providing the edge of tannin that is an integral part of the quality of the wine. Alcohol: 14%. Date tasted: Jan 2016. Drink by: 2034. Price: $35. Rating: 96/100.

Hidden Label McLaren Vale Shiraz Grenache 2017 (KHL 2602)

Region McLaren Vale
Rating 94/100

The winery is a leader in organic and biodynamic viticulture with fruit for all wines sourced from their estate vineyards in McLaren Vale. Under its makers label this Shiraz Grenache is one of Australia's best known red blends. As always the flavours are fruit forward and generous, with ripe plum, blackberry, savoury spice and super-fine tannins. Outstanding balance and structure make this so very drinkable right now. Will easily last a decade in the cellar, but why bother? Delicious.

Hidden Label Reserve Great Southern Riesling 2016 (KHL 2203)

Region Great Southern
Rating 95/100

This winery was one of the original pioneers to champion the cool climate Great Southern region. Today this riesling under its maker's label has grown to become one of the most collected riesling's in Australia. A brilliant, pale lemon in colour with a many and varied mix of fresh and poached fruit notes. The lively citrus zest and green pear, the rich lemon curd and quince give great dimension to the bouquet. These same rich yet fresh flavours build on the palate which is textured with a soft, talcy mineral note and driven by the line of fine citrus acidity. Cellar for a decade or two.

Hidden Label Hunter Valley Semillon 2017 (KHL 2712)

Region Hunter Valley
Rating 94/100

All from the HVD vineyard I believe. I'm told 2017 was a very good vintage for Hunter Semillon too. Lemon barley, lemongrass, talc and ester perfume. There's a softness and roundness to the acidity here that's very appealing, which along with ample lemon/lime flavour and a delightful chalky texture, makes it immediately appealing. It's long too. A lot of wine for your money here. Alcohol: 11%. Closure: screwcap. Date tasted: May 17. Drink: 2017-2027+. Price: $25. Rating: 94/100.

Hidden Label Marlborough Pinot Gris 2017 (KHL 3468)

Region Marlborough
Rating 93/100

We predicted some time ago that the very determined wine industry legend behind this winery and the drive to become the world's most sustainable wine producer would lead them to becoming New Zealand's most successful wine brand. Countless accolades over recent times have reinforced this hunch. Pristine pinot gris grapes from Marlborough's cool Awatere sub-region has delivered classic honeysuckle and ripe, spiced pear aromas and flavours, with a fine stony mineral texture. Perfect with barbecued chicken or seafood.

Chain of Ponds Graves Gate Syrah 2016

Region Adelaide Hills
Rating 95/100 🍷

From a single vineyard in Kuitpo, 8 days on skins in open and Potter fermenters, matured in French and American oak for 15 months. Bright hue; an elegant, medium-bodied syrah, its X-factor coming from its east-facing slope that maximises the morning sun and minimises the afternoon sun. Its got a spice and cracked pepper garnish for the red and black fruits, the tannins fine but persistent. A total contrast to its Acquaintance sibling. Alcohol: 14.5%. Closure: screwcap. St Hallett Faith Shiraz 2016

Region Barossa Valley
Rating 93/100 🍷

If you are an admirer of St Hallett reds, this is the shiraz which most likely started it for you. Faith's vibrant yet dense purple hue hints at the generosity of fruit within. It is a fruit driven, expressive example of Barossa Shiraz made all the more remarkable by its modest price tag. 2016 was an excellent vintage in the Barossa and this Faith is in terrific form.

Rating 95/100 🍷

Right up there with its proud history of quality, and also a world record number of label design changes - please don't try to improve what you have now. Even though tasted in unavoidably warm conditions, came through with flying colours. It has a vibrancy and intensity that brings you up with a jolt, but you settle down quickly, enjoying the typical white peach/pink grapefruit flavour spectrum. Alcohol: 12.5%. Date tasted: Mar 2017. Everything about this is just right: it's colour, a dark purple-red; the core of ripe black fruits dipped in licorice, dark chocolate and woody spices and the suppleness of the silky tannins leading on the medium to fuller-bodied palate. It's so easy to drink and great value. Alcohol: 14.5%. Closure: screwcap. Date tasted: Jan 2018. Drink to: 2028. Price: $27. Rating: 95/100.

McHenry Hohnen Cabernet Merlot 2014

Region Margaret River
Rating 95/100 🍷🍷

65% cabernet sauvignon, 25% merlot and 5% each of malbec and shiraz; the vinification is in the usual McHenry Hohnen template, with whole berry, partial wild yeast ferment in a stone vat, basket-pressed, no additions other than minimal SO2. Deeply coloured, it has a medium to full-bodied palate replete with blackcurrant, redcurrant, black olive and bay leaf flavours within a mesh of fine-grained tannins. Alcohol: 14.5%. Bird In Hand Pinot Gris 2018

Region Adelaide Hills
Rating 95/100 🍷🍷

This cracking pinot gris from the Adelaide Hills has won the trophy for 'Best Pinot Pinot Gris/Grigio' at the Sydney Royal Wine Show 2018, doubling up on its earlier trophy win in the same category at the Royal Queensland Wine Show 2018. The fruit is sourced from vineyards in Lenswood and Lobethal, with some of the juice wild fermented in French oak. Crisp and energetic aromas with creamy flavours of spiced pear, green apple and lemon. It's charged with fresh acidity and chalky minerality. A very classy 'gris' wine to match with chicken or pork dishes.

Provence Rose

Provence is, without question, the most famous rosé-producing region in the world. The region has been producing wine since around 600 B.C. when the Greeks founded Marseilles, so with 2,600 years of experience, you would expect something special.

What might surprise is that the French consume more rosé than white wine! Furthermore, in recent years, rosé consumption has exploded globally. This is especially so in Australia, where consumers are recognising its great synergy with our temperate climate and alfresco lifestyle. Of course Provence rosé is a significant part of the Australian 'Rosé Revolution' with its signature pale salmon-pink colour and delicate but complex aromas and flavours (usually from grenache, cinsault and mourvedre grapes) gently seducing the senses.

PROVENCE ROSÉ AT AN UNHEARD OF PRICE

Fleurs de Paris Provence Rosé 2017

Region: Cotes de Provence
Rating: 93/100 🍷

Provence rosé at an unheard of price. Signature pale salmon colour of Provence rosé. Restrained and delicately expressed, the bouquet shows summer berries with subtle savoury complexity. The palate is light, dry and very savoury, but nicely balanced and intense with softness and a clean, dry, lasting finish. Serve chilled on a hot summer's day.

CULT CLASSIC

Domaines Ott Clos Mireille Rosé 2016

Region: Cotes de Provence
Rating: 97/100 🍷

Today, this famous rosé wine, which has been a success all over the world since the 1930s, is the darling of Saint-Tropez evenings, fooding crowds and the chic terraces of Paris cafes. This traditional rosé wine seduces fine wine lovers by its orange pink colour, which is in perfect harmony with the aromas of small red berries, peaches and flowers that it releases. But by its suppleness, and its fresh and tasty character as well. A standard in rosé wines that your summer wine cellars must be filled with!

THE HIT SENSATION FROM PROVENCE

AIX Rosé Vin de Provence 2017

Region: Cotes de Provence
Rating: 95/100 🍷

The hit sensation from Provence. From the renowned appellation AOP Coteaux d'Aix en Provence this is a fragrant and beautifully structured rosé. The nose is fresh and fragrant, delicate yet youthful and offers classy notes of watermelon, strawberry and flowers. The softest hint of Carignan was added to the classical Provence blend of Grenache, Syrah and Cinsault to give the release an even more profound depth - a serious rosé and an affordable everyday little luxury.
